Mob 'Storms' Un-American Panel Meet

CHICAGO (AP) — A mob of young people tried today to break into the building where the House Committee on Un-American Activities is holding a hearing.

The demonstrators stormed the main entrance and clashed with police who halted them before they could get into the building.

After the attempted breakthrough was stopped, police rounded up 24 of the young men and women. They sat on the sidewalk and locked arms and joined in singing "We Shall Overcome."

Earlier, teenage girls caused a disturbance inside the hearing room and four of them were escorted or carried out by a U.S. marshal. That demonstration began when one girl rose and started to sing "America." Another teenage girl had been grabbed by marshals when she sat down and tried to block the entrance to the building where the hearings are being held.

Mexico Man Dies In Car-Truck Crash

MEXICO, Mo. (AP) — Arthur Winter, 63, of Mexico, was killed early today when his car ran into an Army truck being towed to Ft. Riley, Kan.

The highway patrol said Morris Frank Lewis, 47, Niles, Mich., was driving a 2 1/2-ton Army truck and towing another. He pulled off U.S. highway 54 just south of Mexico to allow traffic piled up behind him to pass.

Then, officers said, Lewis started to drive across the highway to a service area. Winter, traveling north, ran into the side of the truck being towed.

The patrol said Lewis was charged with failure to yield right of way and is being held for investigation in the Audrain County jail. A coroner's inquest was to be held later today.

Kaysinger Funds Bid By Sen. Long

WASHINGTON (AP) — Appropriation of funds this year to advance army engineer water development projects in Missouri was urged today by Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo.

In a statement filed with the Senate Appropriations public works subcommittee, he listed requests for funds for construction on 20 water projects and for surveys of 14 others.

He emphasized a need for money to advance construction of the Kaysinger Bluff and Stockton reservoirs "at the maximum rate consistent with the capability of the Corps of Engineers."

He recommended $14 million for Kaysinger and $13 million for Stockton.

In addition, Long proposed $1 million for Joanna dam on Salt River. No money was budgeted for the project by the president.

Long also supported a request for $200,000 to plan a union reservoir on the Bourbeuse River in the Meramec Basin. The project has been authorized by Congress but no funds to initiate planning are included in budget recommendations.

Church Unity To Result From Meet

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Whiffs of friction trailed today in the wake of the United Presbyterian General Assembly. But it emanated mostly from the sidelines.

Generally, the representative delegates displayed a strong consensus in mapping new church plans and policies, despite eddies of debate.

"Unity in Jesus Christ does not mean uniformity," commented the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, chief administrator of the church. "We can differ within the fellowship without it being a prelude to schism."

As the denomination's week-long legislative meeting closed Wednesday, however, fireworks came from outside it in a volley of criticism by the Rev. Dr. Edward T. Stimson, of Omaha, Neb., at current denominational trends.

He protested a new confession of faith, given preliminary backing by the assembly, and said it could lead to "loss of our liberties and the introduction of monarchical governmental forms" because it sanctions variety in them.

In an open-air news conference, swollen by bystanders, he said the confession also helps "open the way to church union," and he denounced current union talks going on among six denominations, including United Presbyterians.

Petition Filed In Circuit Court

The VUMORE Company of Oklahoma City, one of the unsuccessful bidders for a CATV license here, today petitioned the Circuit Court for a declaratory judgment asking the court to declare action of the City Council in granting such a license as beyond the scope of the council's authority.

Represented by local attorney, James T. Buckley, the VUMORE firm contends they were denied permission to construct and operate a community antenna TV system because they would not pay in excess of 10 per cent of its gross receipts from the operation—the figure guaranteed the city by successful bidders, Sedalia Cable TV, Inc., Iola, Kan.

Attack Halts High Level Cong Meeting

Air War North Of Viet Border Continued Today

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Army helicopters and Vietnamese troops shot up a Viet Cong gathering 25 miles south of Da Nang today and killed about 85 of the enemy. Twenty-five suspects were captured.

A Vietnamese marine major said seized documents indicated the Viet Cong were holding a high-level meeting of many unit officers in the area.

One Vietnamese soldier was killed and three wounded in the attack. One American helicopter gunner was injured slightly.

More than four dozen planes pursued the air war north of the border. A military spokesman announced 20 U.S. and Vietnamese fighter-bombers, flying with a five-plane escort, rained 55 tons of bombs on a North Vietnamese army barracks and supply area 220 miles south of Hanoi.

Pilots reported 65 per cent of their targets destroyed and heavy damage to the remainder of the Ben Quang barracks-supply area.

A U.S. Navy pilot was believed killed when Communist ground fire brought down his F8 Crusader during another strike. Two U.S. Army men were killed the day before in ground clashes. The total of U.S. combat deaths in Viet Nam rose to 389.

A U.S. spokesman disclosed that U.S. Navy destroyers have entered the ground war, firing six missions since May 20 against Viet Cong targets in the coastal areas of South Viet Nam's Binh Dinh, Binh Tuan and Phu Yen provinces.

The spokesman said four destroyers had fired more than 370 rounds against Communist targets. The destroyer Sommers was credited with thwarting an attack May 21 on Hai Long district headquarters, northeast of Saigon. The spokesman said the Sommers' guns killed 12 Viet Cong and wounded 20.

Open Radio Bids In Capital City

Bids were opened in Jefferson City today on the first phase of construction on buildings and power plants which will be a part of the State Highway Department's state-wide radio system.

A Highway Department spokesman in the maintenance division said, however, that the bids have not yet been analyzed fully and no contracts awarded. There was one local bidder, the Paul Graham Construction Company.

One of the radio equipment buildings is to be located in Pettis County at the junction of north Highway 65 and Route D.

Convict Found Dead In State Prison Cell

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Jimmie Lee Perkins, 43, was found dead in his cell at the Missouri penitentiary about 1:30 a.m. today.

Acting warden William P. Steinhauer said he had cut his throat with a knife fashioned from a razor blade with a ball point pen for a handle.

Steinhauer said Perkins had visited the prison hospital several times lately, complaining of a nervous condition.

The ordinance adopted by the City Council on an emergency vote May 24 is "discriminatory, unreasonable and invalid," the petitioners say.

VUMORE contends the practical effect of the ordinance is to create a monopoly in the cable TV business and they further allege the tax levied is "so high as to virtually prohibit legitimate occupation and business." VUMORE also claims the city has no power to tax or license community antenna and closed-circuit electronic systems.

John Beatty is president of local investors listed as a part of the Oklahoma City CATV firm. Beatty is in the real estate business here.

The petition for declaratory judgment asks the Circuit Court to enjoin the city from imposing a license tax on the community antenna TV business and to further enjoin the city from preventing VUMORE from constructing such a system.

"Our intentions in this regard are not to ask that we be the sole organization to construct a cable television system," said attorney Buckley in a statement after the petition was filed in the office of Circuit Clerk Bryan Howe. "Nor are they to enjoin the present licensee from constructing a system. We are merely asking that as much as it is a competitive business, it remain without interference of the City Council."

Buckley's complete statement follows:

"For the past 15 months there has been pending before the City Council various applications for permission to construct a CATV system within the city of Sedalia. For approximately one-half of this period the council has seen fit to delay action on this subject. Thus, further discussion was retarded.

"Recently the City Council had a meeting at which time they allowed the applicants to submit their proposals to the city for them to determine

Living Costs Up Marginal During April

Food, Clothing Hikes Behind Part Of Higher Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose three-tenths of one per cent in April, the biggest monthly jump since last July, the Labor Department reported today.

Increases in the cost of food, clothing, transportation and medical care boosted the consumer price index to 109.3, a new high.

This figure means that in April it cost $10.93 to purchase typical goods that cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period.

The increase was the largest for an April since 1960.

Asked if the rise was unusual, Deputy Asst. Commissioner Sidney A. Jaffe of the Bureau of Labor Statistics said:

"It's a little out of balance, but not tremendously."

Led by price rises in fresh fruits and vegetables, the index of food prices equaled the all-time peak of 107.3 set in September, 1964. This was an increase of four-tenths of one per cent over March.

Average weekly earnings of factory workers dropped about $1.25 in April because of a cutback in overtime work. But average hourly earnings of $2.60 remained at an all-time high for the second straight month.

The average weekly after-tax earnings of a factory worker with three dependents were $95.12 and for a worker without dependents $87.50.

Change of Tack By City Council

A hastily called meeting between Mayor L. L. Studer and city councilmen at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the mayor's office produced some clarification in the current CATV ordinance mixup and a change of tack in remedying the situation.

Councilmen admitted passing an ordinance which was not prepared by City Counselor Earl T. Crawford, but Mayor Studer indicated that he will abandon plans to call on the council to repeal the ordinance passed on a 5-2 emergency status vote.

Instead the council will proceed with amendments to the licensing ordinance — operating through the council's Printing & Ordinance committee. This committee is headed by Councilman Ralph Walker with members Floyd Priddy and James Askren.

Only five councilmen were on hand for the session, which was opened to news reporters although it was held in the mayor's private office. The councilmen were Ray Simons, Ralph Walker, James Schumaker, R. N. Snavely and Robert Wells. Others in attendance included Larry Hudson, president of Sedalia Cable TV, Inc., Iola, Kan., the successful bidding firm; William F. Brown, legal counsel for the CATV firm; W. C. Cramer and E. W. Thompson, stockholders in the local share of the cable TV firm; City Clerk Ralph Dedrick and City Counselor Crawford.

Studer told the group that at Monday night's council session he was under the impression that the ordinance the council acted upon was prepared by Crawford. Councilman Snavely and Simons said they shared that impression.

But it was brought out that William F. Brown had prepared

Rep. Speer Ejected From State House

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Speaker Thomas D. Graham, D-Cole County, ordered the ejection of Rep. Alfred A. Speer, R-St. Louis County, today when Speer tried to get recognition.

Temper flared after Graham told Speer to take his seat. Speer had been trying for some minutes to get the floor and Graham had been refusing to recognize him.

"Either you take your seat or I'll have the sergeant at arms eject you from the chamber," Graham shouted.

Speer continued to ask recognition in a loud voice.

"Sergeant at arms," Graham ordered, "eject that man."

The sergeant at arms is Orville Woodard, a burly but friendly man.

He took Speer by the arm but Speer wrapped his arms around a microphone post and continued shouting.

Finally, other minority members asked Speer to leave.

Graham kept telling Speer during the exchange that he would be recognized in due time. Speer has been refused the floor several times in his efforts to get out of the Rules Committee a resolution he introduced Jan. 19 and on which, he said, he has been refused a hearing.

The resolution would change the House rules so that lobbyists would have to register immediately with the chief clerk and at the end of the session report how they spent their employers' money.

Big Trucks Off Road On Holiday Weekends

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Oversized trucks will not be permitted to use Missouri highways on the Memorial Day weekend and six other holidays this year, the Highway Department announced today.

The department issues special permits for over-dimension and overweight loads but none will be issued for the Memorial Day weekend in an effort to make the highways safer during the heavy traffic period.

State Remap Plan Given Panel's Okay

'No More Changes' Unless Technical Errors Are Found

BULLETIN

JEFFERSON CITY — The Senate returned today to its original plan of having the House reapportioned by a special bipartisan redistricting commission.

It passed, 24-0, a constitutional amendment proposal setting up such a system—the same as the Senate is now being redistricted by a special bipartisan commission of 10.

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Delayed by objections, a plan to remap state representative districts got final committee approval Wednesday night.

The House Reapportionment Committee wrestled over boundary lines for three hours — but made changes in only one county. Then members voted to accept a plan carving Missouri into 168 new districts. They had agreed informally on about the same plan.

It can't be put in legal form soon enough for a submission to the House today, as the committee chairman had hoped. Instead, it probably will be introduced early next week.

The House is racing a June 30 deadline to complete its own redistricting. Some state officials fear that other needed legislation would be lost in a deadlock over districts.

"We're a couple days behind schedule," said the chairman, Rep. Norbert Jasper, D-Franklin County. He said the committee will make no more changes unless technical errors are found.

Changes were suggested for most parts of the state Wednesday night, but minor adjustments were made only in Buchanan County. A committee member from that county, Rep. James Williams (D) had proposed more sweeping changes.

As it now stands, Buchanan County would contain three complete districts — two mostly within St. Joseph and one combining urban and rural areas. The county's northern tip would be joined to another district.

Objections to the overall plan came mostly from rural areas, which stand to lose the most from redistricting. Agreement was reached earlier on districts within St. Louis and Kansas City, where representation will almost double.

A federal district court has ordered that the Missouri House be realigned on a one man-one vote basis. This means districts based solely on population, rather than the present system of at least one representative from each county.

Clarify Marriage License Waiting Period In State

With June the major month for marriages nearly here, officials of the county recorder's office today urged betrothed couples to contact the office for correct information about applications for licenses to marry. Some couples have been misinformed that the three-day waiting period applies on the blood test. Missouri law, however, provides a three-day waiting period between the application for a marriage license and the issuance of a license.

Having a blood test report up on application for a license does not eliminate the waiting period.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I enjoyed your definition of "class." And now, will you please give us another definition? What is charm anyway?—Mg.

Dear Mg: Charm walks on art gum soles. It is gentle. But it packs a wallop like a bag of wet cement.

Charm is a magical quality that defrosts, disarms, delights and fascinates. It is not a sudden attack of sweetness that can be turned off and on like a faucet. It is woven into the fabric of the personality like a silver thread. It glistens. It shines and it wears well. For months. For years. Forever.

Dear Ann Landers: I married at 25 and I've had three children in the last five years. I worked through all my pregnancies but I'm not complaining because I felt very good the whole time. (The last baby was almost born in the store.)

I want to quit but my husband says we can't make it on one check and it's unfair of me to put the whole burden on him.

For the past two months I have kept a penny by penny record of what I have spent because I am working. After I paid the housekeeper, added up the taxis, lunches, buses, income tax on my salary, payroll deductions and the salary for a nurse when my youngest child was sick, I cleared an average of $72 a month. This does not include the cost of clothes I need because I work downtown.

Am I being unfair to my husband? What shall I do?—RASSLING WITH MY CONSCIENCE.

Dear Rassling: Quit. Your young family needs you more than you need the $72 a month.

Mothers of pre-school children belong at home unless there is a good reason why they must go out and work. The only valid reasons are:

- There is no other breadwinner in the family.
- A doctor has told the mother her kids are driving her nuts and she must get away from the house for their good as well as hers. These women should not have had children of course, but they did have them and a program of separation must be worked out.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband's boss is the most proper, courteous, and soft-spoken person in the world—when he is sober. When he gets drunk (which is about once a week) he is profane, vulgar and rude, and he loves to call people and talk on the telephone regardless of the hour.

Last night at 2 a.m. he called from a bar and sang two choruses of "Wait 'Til the Sun Shines Nellie." He then put a few buddies on the line—men he would not have been caught dead with if he had been sober. They sang some dirty songs my husband recognized from the army.

We resent having our sleep broken up this way, especially on Saturday night because we like to go to early mass on Sunday. My husband is afraid to talk to the boss about this for obvious reasons. I think he should. Please give us some advice.—BLOODSHOT EYES.

Dear Eyes: Mentioning this to the boss won't accomplish a thing. Telephone drunks are incurable—unless they go off the sauce.

The telephone company can install a jack-type phone which can be plugged out, or a bell control which will shut off the bell at the flick of a lever. The cost is nominal, compared to what a night's sleep is worth to a family.

Increase Is Seen For 'Fair Aid'

Dexter Davis, Missouri commissioner of agriculture, said today that an increase is anticipated this year in the number of county and district fairs that will participate in the department of agriculture's aid-to-fairs program.

The department is permitted under this program to reimburse county and district fairs up to 50 per cent of the cash premiums offered to exhibitors of approved classes.

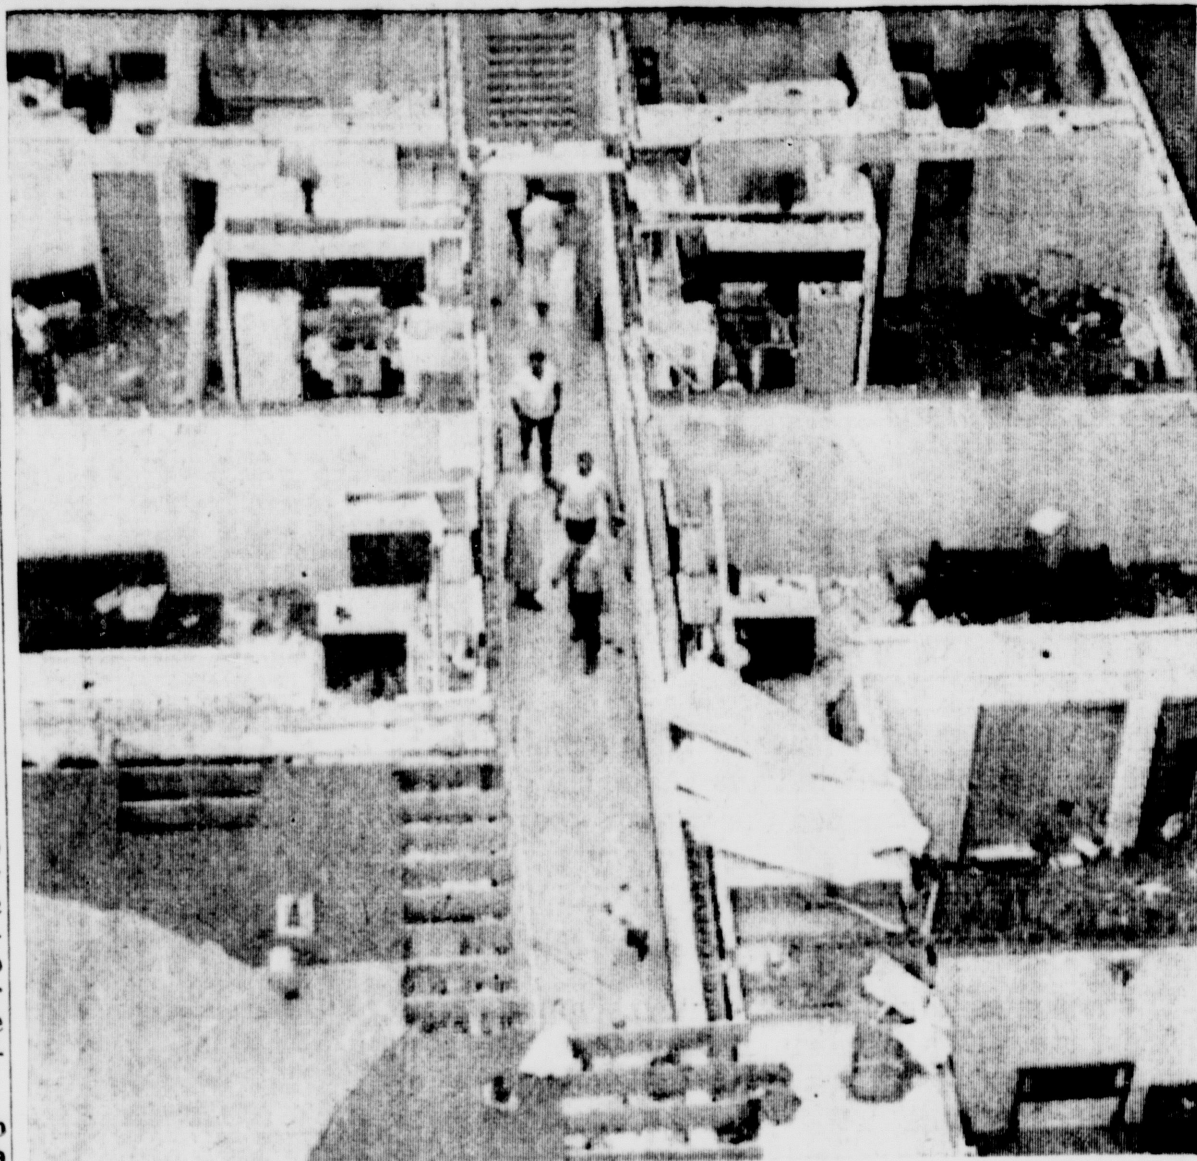

Davis reported that applications for assistance have already been received for 142 fairs to be held in 1965. A total of 171 fairs participated in the program last year and this number is expected to increase this year, he said.

James P. Argenbright, director of the department's livestock and fairs division, said June 30 is the deadline for accepting registrations for the 1965 season. While the department is permitted to grant assistance up to 50 per cent of the premiums, the anticipated appropriations for the 1965-66 fiscal year will probably allow a payment of only 33 1/3 per cent of the premium list for the 1965 season, Argenbright said.

The aid-to-fairs program is designed to encourage the production of better field crops and livestock through friendly competition at local county and district fairs and shows for cash premiums.

MU Junior Awarded Radio Scholarship

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A University of Missouri junior from St. Louis, Thomas Edward Frazee, was named today as winner of the fifth annual Albert Stine Memorial scholarship award for radio journalism at the University.

The award is given by the Balaban stations in honor of the late Albert Stine, a special representative for The Associated Press for many years.

Frazee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frazee (10017 Stanwick Court) St. Louis. He received the presentation at the annual Honors Day assembly at the university in Columbia.

State Sheep Owners Get $17,967.77

Dexter Davis, Missouri commissioner of agriculture, reported that indemnity claims totaling $17,967.77 were paid to Missouri sheep owners recently under the state agriculture department's Scrapie eradication program.

Checks ranging in amounts from $22.50 to $10,402.02, hinging on the number of animals involved, were mailed to 33 flock owners, Davis said. An equal amount has been paid by the United States department of agriculture, which works with the state department in the program. This brings to 1,543 the number of sheep on which indemnity claims have been paid since the start of the program in 1957.

Dr. George C. Stiles, state veterinarian, explained that sheep scrapie is a highly contagious disease that attacks the central nervous system of the animals. He said that infected animals are ordered slaughtered and flock owners reimbursed for the losses under the program.

A county-by-county breakdown of the payments is as follows: Andrew, $10,452.02; Boone, $286.22; Carroll, $425; Cass, $50; Christian, $62.50; Clay, $289.37; Greene, $62.50; Grundy, $22.50;

Henry, $140; Howard, $112.50; Jackson, $404.21; Johnson, $872.55; Lewis, $62.50; Marion, $25; Mercer, $255; Montgomery, $122.50; Newton, $3,121.61; Pettis, $170; Platte, $861.10; Ray, $85.10; and Warren, $65.

Hearing On Communism Finalized

CHICAGO (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities moved its hearing on communism in Illinois into its final stage today. Witnesses refused to answer questions and 12 persons were ejected in Wednesday's stormy session.

The committee heard a second witness testify of being a Communist party member while spying for the FBI.

Federal marshals charged the persons ejected from the hearing room with impeding a committee of Congress in exercise of its proper process of investigation. Eight were released on $100 bond and the others were held in jail.

One witness Milton Cohen, walked out. A committee member said he will urge the full committee to charge Cohen with contempt.

Cohen was one of six persons named by a witness as being active in the Communist party.

Some 60 pickets paraded outside watched by 100 policemen. There were no incidents.

The pickets included three men in military uniforms with arm bands bearing the Nazi swastika. They carried placards reading "Communism is treason" and "God bless HUAC."

On the witness stand, Lucius Armstrong, 65, a Negro and retired steel mill hand, told the committee that he joined the Communist party in 1931, left in 1934, rejoined it in 1937, left it again in 1948, and rejoined in 1953 at the request of the FBI.

He told a story similar to one related by Miss Lola Bell Holmes, a Negro, who testified Tuesday that she spied for the FBI while a party member.

Armstrong and Miss Holmes are from Chicago.

Asked by Alfred Nittle, committee counsel, if the Communist party in the United States selects Soviet policy, Armstrong said, "It don't select anything but a bunch of ignorance."

Delight In Success Of Premiere

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Members of the Performing Arts Foundation of Kansas City expressed delight Wednesday at the success of the American premiere of George Frederick Handel's opera, "Julius Caesar."

The final performance of the opera at the Kansas City Music Hall played to a capacity crowd Tuesday night. The Performing Arts Foundation said more than 7,400 persons saw the opera during its three performances. The production opened Friday night and a performance also was held Sunday night.

The Handel score was adapted by Nicola Rescigno, who conducted the performances. Evelyn Lear, a soprano from Brooklyn, had the role of Cleopatra, and Giorgio Tozzi of the Metropolitan Opera had the title role.

Lawrence Kelly, managing director of the Dallas Opera, was director and producer.

Mrs. R. Crosby Kemper, Jr., wife of a Kansas City banker and co-founder and president of the foundation, said, "a standard of excellence has been established for our performing arts institutions, and Kansas City has been projected significantly into the national cultural scene."

David Stickelber, businessman and co-founder with Mrs. Kemper, said "the big thrill was the overwhelming acceptance by the Kansas City community."

CAN KEEP HIS DATE—Jacqueline Zabbaro and Pfc. Frank Briglia are all smiles this week, now that the way has been cleared for their wedding May 29. The 20-year-old paratrooper was sent to the Dominican Republic with the 2nd Airborne Division a short time ago—after the wedding invitations had been sent out. Jacqueline's letter to President Johnson got the soldier home in time for his date at the altar. (UPI Telephoto)

Stage Set Up

Voting Rights Bill Brings Controversy Over Poll Tax

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate passage of the administration's voting-rights bill has set up an eventual clash with the House over the banning of poll taxes in state and local elections.

That is the chief difference between the bill that sailed through the Senate Wednesday by a 79-19 vote after five weeks of debate, and the one awaiting action in the House.

The House Judiciary Committee overrode administration objections and wrote in a flat ban on poll taxes, plus a declaration that they have been used to discriminate against Negro voters. The Senate adopted a similar declaration but rejected the ban by a 49-45 vote.

Despite the solid support of the Senate joint leadership and the administration for the Senate stand on poll taxes, the House intends to stand by its version. Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., has already pledged his support and Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the Judiciary Committee, said Wednesday he would resist all efforts to weaken the poll-tax provision.

Celler's committee approved the bill May 12, but no action has been taken to clear it for debate and voting in the House. The committee's formal report will be filed Monday, and it could be another three weeks before the bill gets to the floor.

Aside from the poll-tax issue, the two bills have similar provisions, closely adhering to the legislation President Johnson requested in a speech to Congress last March 15 at the height of racial unrest in several Southern cities.

The main effect would be to suspend automatically state literacy tests and other such devices in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Georgia and South Carolina and parts of North Carolina and Virginia. Federal registrars would be authorized to sign up voters in those areas where tests are struck down.

Court action to appoint federal registrars and suspend literacy tests would be authorized in any state or county where the attorney general brought suit to enforce the 15th Amendment's guarantee of the right to vote.

The Senate's passage of the bill was never in doubt after 70 Senators voted Tuesday to limit further debate. But Southern opposition was bitter and unyielding.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., said the measure violates the Magna Carta, the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

"Not since Reconstruction has the Senate permitted this union to be so perverted and subjected to such a diabolical attack," he said.

But Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen, of Illinois, who helped shape the bill and steer it to passage, said he was confident it would be held constitutional by the Supreme Court.

President Johnson thanked the Senate and called the vote "triumphant evidence of this nation's resolve that every citizen must and shall be able to march to a polling place and vote without fear of prejudice or obstruction."

The kind of bipartisan leadership that helped the bill to passage in the Senate will be missing in the House, but Democratic leaders are not worried. They have a big bulge in votes over the Republicans and are confident that in the end, with no place else to go, most Republicans will vote for the bill.

The GOP members are supporting a measure cosponsored by their party's leader, Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, and Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, who helped write

Anthology Series May Come Back

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP) — David Susskind, whose principal occupation is producing programs for network television, is convinced that the dramatic anthology series soon will return to popularity.

"Television moves in cycles, and we have now completed the life cycle of the social-significance shows," he observed. "In fact, we overdid it as usual, with too many series determined to hit the audiences over the head with dramas hammering at current problems."

These "social-significance" series, of course, included Susskind's own "East Side, West Side," and such programs as "The Defenders," "For the People," and "Slattery's People." All except "Slattery's People" will have disappeared by September, and "Slattery's People," about a politician, has never been exactly a star in the Nielsen ratings. CBS obviously believes it has other sterling qualities and gave it a second season in which to prove itself.

"Right now it is apparent that audiences want relaxation and escape, probably because they have enough serious problems in their own lives and are living out personal dramas," Susskind continued. "That seems obvious in the success of movies like 'Goldfinger,' and 'Mary Poppins.'"

Arthur Godfrey, who recently played a limited engagement in a Broadway show, now will try his hand at movies. He'll play Doris Day's father in a film to be produced in Hollywood this summer.

Last year's Civil Rights Act and played a key role in getting it passed.

Unexpected Reward In New Venture

SARANAC, Mich. (AP) — Two Michigan housewives have found an unexpected reward in a new business venture. They're not only making money with their garbage truck, they're losing weight.

Iva Bennett, 30, and her sister, Dorothy Chase, 42, have been operating a garbage and rubbish pickup service in this southwest Michigan town of 1,100 since last fall.

When they started Mrs. Chase weighed 176 pounds.

"Now I'm down to 159 and Iva went from 185 in September to 175 now," said Mrs. Chase.

Three years ago Mrs. Chase and her husband, Harold, took over Charles Miller's refuse route while he was hospitalized.

"We told him that if the time ever came when he wanted to get rid of it, we'd take it," says Mrs. Chase. The time came.

The project includes yardwork, hauling sand and gravel, moving, housecleaning — or what have you.

The sisters' original truck was a 1949 model. When it started acting its age, Mrs. Chase overhauled the motor with an assist from her husband, who is a mechanic.

"He gave me a new truck for Christmas," she says.

The garbage route is the sisters' project, but Chase has volunteered for heavy lifting. Bennett is tied up with his job at a grain elevator.

In their work week, which recently has become a seven-day schedule, the sisters put about 40 miles per day on the truck. Mrs. Chase, a resident of Ionia, travels an extra 18-mile round trip daily between home and work.

The sisters average hauling three loads a day to the Saranac dump. They charge a flat fee, but extra work may mean extra pay.

"I kind of like the work," said Mrs. Bennett. "It gives me a chance to get outside."

Laments Bike Theft In Newspaper Adv

KANSAS CITY (AP) — For nearly a year, Gilbert Rodriguez saved all the dimes and quarters he got for running errands and doing chores.

Saturday he withdrew all $30 and bought the bicycle he longed for—red, of course, with a 10-speed gear, marked down from $55.

Sunday, Gilbert and a friend went on a bicycle tour of the neighborhood and stopped to explore the excavation for a new building. While they were in the pit, a car stopped and one of its teen-age occupants rode off on Gilbert's bicycle.

The lament of the 9-year-old boy has been running in the form of a personal want-ad in the Kansas City Star.

"To the boy who rode off with my red, 10-speed bike: May you enjoy the bike I worked and saved so hard for."

Strong Winds Rake West Plains, Potosi

WEST PLAINS, Mo. (AP)—Strong winds raked several areas between West Plains and Potosi in south-central and southeast Missouri Wednesday afternoon.

There was widespread damage, but no casualties were reported.

Some of the damage was characteristic of that done by tornadoes, but no funnel sightings were confirmed.

The roof was ripped from the high school gymnasium at Bakersfield, about 25 miles southwest of West Plains. The pupils were eating in the cafeteria, a separate building.

Power was knocked out in West Plains, car ports were torn from houses, a small grocery store was damaged by a falling tree and part of the roof was blown off at the Farmers Exchange Cooperative, a grocery and feed store.

Wind and heavy rain blew down the screen at a drive-in movie in the Ironton-Arcadia area. Trees were uprooted and power lines were torn down.

Similar damage was reported at Salem, Piedmont and Fredericktown. Fallen trees blocked U.S. 67 and Mine LaMotte for a time.

Face Task Of Treating Casualties

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thousands of South Vietnamese are so badly disfigured by gunshot and burn wounds they'll never be able to lead useful lives, says an American plastic surgeon who recently returned from the stricken land.

Only four Vietnamese plastic surgeons are available in that country of 14 million people, a severe shortage that represents a national tragedy, said Dr. Richard B. Stark, chief of plastic surgery at St. Luke's Hospital, New York.

Stark returned recently from Saigon after spending a month training and assisting the four Vietnamese plastic surgeons who face, he said, a staggering task of treating casualty cases that includes civilians and soldiers. Stark was an emissary of MEDICO, a nongovernmental medical group that provides aid in underprivileged areas of the world.

"Many of them (the victims) need 40 to 50 operations in order to be salvaged," said the doctor in a report to MEDICO. The report was made available to a reporter by CARE Inc., which is holding a world conference here. MEDICO is a service of CARE.

"Based on U.S. experiences in World War II and the Korean War," the report said, "it would take 15 years to perform the amount of reconstructive surgery needed to restore these people."

"MEDICO has made an important first step in tackling the problem," he said, adding that he and seven other American plastic surgeons lectured and operated under a program "calculated to upgrade the Vietnamese surgeons."

But plastic surgery is not the only medical deficiency in the area, he said.

"South Viet Nam," Stark said, "is a medical jungle. Statistics tell just part of the story."

"There are only 700 physicians in the entire country. However, 400 of these are serving up to 10 years in the armed forces. That leaves 300 physicians who must care for the civilian population of 14 million."

The doctor said a new phase of the plastic surgery and other surgery training program is under way with the cooperation of St. Luke's Hospital.

"It is designed," he said, "to

Stain Removal

Prompt treatment and the right method are the answer to successful stain removal.

Before using any stain remover, be sure it will not harm the fabric. Read labels on clothing and on stain removers. Or test a stain remover on a hidden part of the articles.

If in doubt, send the stained article to a professional dry-cleaner. He has the skill, special equipment, and the reagents to handle more difficult stains and fabrics.

In some cases, such as grass stains, it is best to work from the wrong side of the fabric, forcing the stain out instead of in. On washable fabrics, work a detergent into the stain, then rinse. If the stain remains, use a chlorine or sodium perborate bleach or hydrogen peroxide. Don't use chlorine bleaches on fabrics that contain silk or wool, or have special finishes. Read the labels on wash-wear fabrics to see if it is safe to use a chlorine bleach.

Treat grass stains on non-washable fabrics the same, but try alcohol first—if it is safe for the dye. Use 1 part alcohol to 2 parts water for stains on an acetate fabric.

For a persistent mustard stain in a washable fabric, soak the article in hot detergent solution for several hours—overnight, if necessary. If the stain still remains, use a bleach.

To remove candle wax, scrape the spot with a dull knife. Then place the stained cloth between clean white blotters or several layers of facial tissues and press with a warm iron. To remove the remaining stain, sponge with a grease solvent, such as carbon tetrachloride.

Caution: Fumes from all grease solvents are toxic. Use these solvents only with adequate ventilation. Some solvents are also flammable. Read the label and follow carefully any precautions listed.

Mildew Control

Mildew thrives in damp, warm, poorly aired, or poorly lighted areas.

Tips on prevention:
Keep closets, dresser drawers, basements, and clothing as clean as possible.

Get rid of dampness: ventilate house and closed areas, heat the house for a short time, or use silica gel or activated alumina to absorb moisture (they can be dried and used over and over).

Get rid of musty odors: they indicate mold is present.

Give some articles and surfaces special care: shower curtains and other household articles can be treated with fungicides that make them resistant to mildew.

When you find mildew spots, remove them immediately; don't give the mold a chance to weaken or rot the article. Brush off surface growth outdoors, if possible, to prevent scattering the mildew spores in the house.

Articles—clothing and household fabrics, upholstered articles, leather goods, wood, and books—can be thoroughly cleaned by using proper methods. Ask for a copy of "How to Prevent and Remove Mildew."

Freeze Raw Rhubarb

Freeze raw rhubarb in airtight containers. Pack dry, or add 1 cup sugar to 1 quart rhubarb, or cover with 40% syrup made by combining 3 cups sugar with 4 cups water. Rhubarb is excellent frozen.

Cooking Rhubarb

Early rhubarb is tender and should not be peeled as this removes the color. Since rhubarb is over 90% water, it requires very little cooking water—just enough to cover the bottom of the pan. Cover and cook until rhubarb is tender, then add sugar to taste—usually $\frac{3}{4}$ to 1 cup sugar for 4 cups rhubarb. Baked rhubarb retains its shape very well and is easily prepared. Just combine rhubarb, a little water, sugar and a dash of salt in a baking dish. Cover and bake in a hot oven (400°) until

Business Analysis

Weapons Set To Ward Off Any Letdown In Confidence

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK — Both psychological and monetary weapons are being readied to ward off any letdown in Americans' confidence that prosperity is here to stay.

Government officials and agencies are now starting a chorus of warnings that people mustn't expect too much. They seek to prevent nervousness if the big upsurge in the early months of this year isn't duplicated in the next few months.

At the same time, new monetary stimulants for the economy are on order for this fall. One is the cut in excise taxes which Congress is pushing through speedily. Another is an increase in Social Security benefits this fall, just ahead of the rise in Social Security taxes Jan. 1.

The new money from the tax cut and the more generous payments to the growing number of retired is counted upon to boost consumer spending.

Government spending is going up, too. Some see more defense outlays in the making. Many of the antipoverty programs are ripe for expansion.

Federal debt is due for another rise. It is now $316 billion but the Treasury says it will be $326 billion a year from now. Wall Street regards that as inflationary, however Washington may view it. Stock market observers say prices went up as a result of the Treasury's request that the debt limit be raised.

Business plans for expansion spending are revised upward steadily.

All these should help to insulate public confidence from any shock if there's a downturn this summer in economic statistics, or any slowdown in the rate of growth.

Stress is laid on the signs that 1965 as a whole is going to be a prosperous year, even if the rate of growth varies from quarter to quarter, as it usually does in any year.

Government agencies also are stressing that the big spurt ahead in the first quarter of 1965 was both unexpected and due in part to unusual circumstances. Always cited are the catch-up in auto sales after shortages due to last fall's strikes, and the build-up in steel inventories as a hedge against a possible strike in that key industry.

Queen In West Berlin For a Visit

BERLIN (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II flew 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain today to West Berlin. East Germany claimed that West German agents were planning "terrorist attacks" on the Berlin wall during her 5½-hour visit.

The queen's 22-mile route through the city took her past the barbed wire-topped wall, but there were no plans for her to stop at it. British officials said this was done to spare her any anti-Western posters such as the East Germans put up for President Kennedy's visit to the wall in June 1963.

The East German Radio asserted that "terrorists" of the West German intelligence service, run by Gen. Reinhard Gehlen, were planning "provocations against the border of the (East) German Democratic Republic."

The broadcast also charged that West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's flight to West Berlin Wednesday night aboard a U.S. Air Force plane to greet the queen was a violation of East German air space.

East Germany's Red government said a month ago it had no objection to the queen's visit to West Berlin. But this week the East German Foreign Office accused Erhard, by coming to meet her, of trying to "use the visit as an aggressive demonstration" of West Germany's claims to West Berlin.

British, West German and West Berlin authorities ignored the Communists.

The East Germans did not object to the queen's visit because officially she came to inspect British troops who with American and French soldiers make up West Berlin's Allied garrison. But West Berliners viewed her coming as an expression of British solidarity with them and arranged a big welcome.

It was Elizabeth's first flight over Communist territory in her 12-year reign. During the 15 minutes her Royal Air Force turboprop plane was over East Germany, radar observers spotted a number of unidentified planes in the air corridor she used. But none appeared to come close to the royal plane.

One West Berlin newspaper said Elizabeth's visit would rank with Kennedy's among the most important events in Berlin's postwar history.

Elizabeth and her husband, Prince Philip, landed at the British military airport in the suburb of Gatow. They were welcomed by West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt and Chancellor Erhard.

Elizabeth's visit to West Berlin was the climax of her state visit to West Germany, which began May 18 and ends when she sails for home Friday aboard the royal yacht Britannia. She is the first British monarch to visit Germany in 52 years.

For 10 days now Elizabeth has been the center of the former enemy nation's attention. Newspapers publish pages of pictures and stories about her daily. Television stations show hours-long segments of her tour in live broadcasts. Thousands of Germans turn out to cheer wherever she goes.

For many Germans the royal visit is the final pardon after two world wars as Britain's enemy. They hope that this act of grace will soften anti-German feelings which have been more harshly and frequently expressed in England than in any other former enemy country in the West.

Painful Refund

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pacific Gas & Electric Co. has demonstrated to its financial pain that it's willing to take a second look at a bill and correct a mistake.

The utility said it recently discovered it installed a too-fast meter nine years ago at the port's ferry building.

Growing Pains To Be Topic At Mayor's Meet

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Representatives of grassroots America will meet next week to discuss how they can water down urban growing pains.

Municipal executives from across the country will arrive here on Sunday for the four-day U. S. Conference of Mayors. It will end Wednesday with the adoption of resolutions and the election of officers.

The mayors, in plenary sessions and in workshops, will study problems in their cities where nearly 70 per cent of the American population now is centered.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, representing President Johnson, will give a keynote address Monday. Humphrey, a former mayor of Minneapolis, will discuss what the administration is doing to help cope with urban problems and issues.

Also addressing Monday's plenary session will be U. S. Appellate Judge George Edwards of Detroit, who will discuss law enforcement and police-community relations; Whitney Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League; and U. S. Rep. Clark MacGregor of Minnesota, a member of the Republican task force.

Workshop subjects will include expansion of equal employment opportunities, federal aid to cities, federal-city legislation, the war against poverty, community development, education and solid waste disposal.

Mayor Neal S. Blaisdell of Honolulu became conference president last month, succeeding Raymond R. Tucker, who was defeated last March in his bid for an unprecedented fourth term as mayor of St. Louis. The host at the meeting will be his successor, Mayor A. J. Cervantes.

Tucker had led the conference since December 1963, when the organization's president, Mayor Arthur L. Selland of Fresno, Calif., was killed in a traffic accident. Tucker was re-elected last year in New York City.

The conference was established in 1933 to help cities cope with depression emergencies.

Municipal corporations with more than 30,000 population—and not individuals—hold membership in the conference.

Injured were Russ Rayl, 16, 521 East 14th, who complained of bruises to his right side; David Dickman, 17, 3605 South Grand, a cut on the head; Bob Smith, 17, 615 North Park, a shoulder injury and several front teeth missing.

The driver, Bill Countryman, 17, 419 East 15th, and one passenger, Bob Spears, 16, 400 East 14th, were only slightly injured.

The car, a 1957 Chevrolet, was heading north across the bridge when the front tires left the rain-slick runners of the bridge. In an attempt to get the car back onto the runners, the rear of the car swerved lodging it lengthways between the sides of the bridge.

Dr. K. L. Holdren and Dr. R. A. Enoch treated the injured. Parks wrecker towed the car from the scene.

Jerry Brauer, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Brauer, Route 1, was painfully, but not seriously injured about 6:45 p.m. Wednesday when his motorcycle struck an automobile on Limit, near 20th. He was admitted to Bothwell Hospital for observation.

The accident occurred as D. R. Miller, 61, 2110 East Ninth, was turning off Limit into the drive of the Frank Moore greenhouse, north of 20th Street. Miller was driving a 1956 DeSoto sedan south when he made his turn and Brauer, riding a Honda motorcycle, was headed north on the highway. Witnesses said the motorcycle struck the right rear wheel of the sedan, threw its rider off and the machine skidded on down the pavement a short distance.

Brauer's machine was slightly damaged in the mishap.

He was taken to the Bothwell Hospital in the Ewing ambulance where he was examined and treated by Dr. D. O. Eldenburgh. Brauer complained of a back injury.

According to the police report it was raining at the time of the accident.

"By its action at a recess council meeting Monday night the City Council indicated by ordinance that only one firm would be permitted to construct a CATV system in Sedalia. Comment was made by one of the councilmen that the five proposals to be considered had never been read in their entirety, that the council had never called a full meeting of its members to discuss the various proposals to determine what each had to offer to the residents of the city of Sedalia.

"As stated on the council floor the objects to be considered were the consumer rates and the extent of revenue to be derived by the city.

"I have advised my client, VUMORE Company of Oklahoma City, Okla., that the City Council does not have the authority to restrict the right of any person, firm or organization to construct and operate a community antenna system. To so restrict would be to create a virtual monopoly in one applicant and would obviously provide no safeguards to the citizens of Sedalia relative to the quality of service and rates to be charged.

"We have today filed in the Circuit Court in Pettis County a petition for declaratory judgment wherein we have asked the court to declare that the action of the City Council be ultra vires as beyond the scope of its authority.

"It is further our contention that in as much as the city has not the power to license a CATV firm, they have not the power to impose a tax on the receipts of the operation. This would allow any person, firm or organization supplying a CATV service to reduce the rates to the consumers and thereby permit more people to subscribe to and enjoy the services of CATV.

"It is our sincere thought that as a result of this action the citizens of Sedalia will derive numerous benefits in terms of quality of service and consumer rates regardless of whoever provides the service."

Mayor L. L. Studer had no immediate comment when informed at early afternoon that

Initiation Banquet By S-C 'S' Club

The Smith-Cotton "S" Club held its annual initiation banquet for new members Wednesday night in the Smith-Cotton cafeteria.

The club, whose members are Smith-Cotton students who have earned school letters during their senior year, is presided over by Paul Edwards, who acted as toastmaster for the program following the banquet.

After the meal, Edwards introduced Bill Long, a senior who earned a letter in vocal music. Bill sang "Hello, Young Lovers" and "Dear Heart." He was accompanied by Miss Barbara Lanpher.

Mrs. Dan Ruffin, secretary, read the minutes of the last club meeting, followed by the treasurer's report by Chester Eding. The installation of new members followed with the reading of their names by the president and signing their names to the club's roll. In all, 92 seniors were eligible to join "S" club, the largest addition at any one time in history of the club.

Donald Lamm, Jr., vice-president, explained the significance of the club's symbol, the letter S. Lamm pointed out that the S stood for Sedalia, Smith-Cotton, senior, service, and self.

The president then administered the oath of membership to the new members. After this, the club's awards to outstanding seniors were presented.

The speaker, Jim Stevens, vice-president in charge of community service with the Missouri Public Service Co., explained the necessity of higher education. Stevens also pointed out that two-year colleges were just as beneficial as four-year colleges and universities in that they help those high school graduates who cannot meet the requirements of the higher institutions, or who have some special need.

After the address, Diana Gray, accompanied by Barbara Lanpher, led the group in singing the "Alma Mater," and the program was concluded.

Schwitalla Service Will Be Saturday

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Funeral services for a man who became dean emeritus of the St. Louis University School of Medicine without an M-D degree will be conducted Saturday.

The Rev. Alphonse M. Schwitalla, 83, died Tuesday of a heart ailment. He was professor emeritus of biology at St. Louis University in addition to being dean emeritus of the medical school.

Schwitalla, who was born in Beuthen, Upper Silesia, Germany in 1882, received the American Medical Association's certificate of merit and gold medal for "outstanding effort for the public welfare on a national level" in 1948.

He was the first non-physician to receive the AMA award.

the petition for declaratory judgment had been filed by the VUMORE firm.

As the city's chief officer he was served a copy of the petition by Sheriff Emmett Fairfax.

Filing of the petition was no surprise to the mayor, however. He had commented Wednesday morning that he was aware of VUMORE's intentions.

Hitch In Disability Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disagreement between the House and Senate is threatening to block a proposed constitutional amendment to cover presidential disability.

The hitch to a compromise agreement is a provision in the House bill to limit the time Congress has to decide the issue when the vice president contests the right of a once-disabled president to resume office.

The House version says Congress must decide within 10 days or the president resumes his powers automatically. The Senate bill sets no time limit.

The House provision was frankly aimed at the Senate, with its tradition of unlimited debate. Advocates of the amendment fear a Senate filibuster could keep a president from office.

Two conferences between Senate and House joint committees have failed to settle the issue. When the second one broke up Wednesday, no date was set for a third meeting. Participants said feelings on both sides were strong.

The Senate reportedly agreed to accept a 21-day limit for congressional action, but the House rejected it, arguing the nation could not afford such an interruption in the exercise of presidential power.

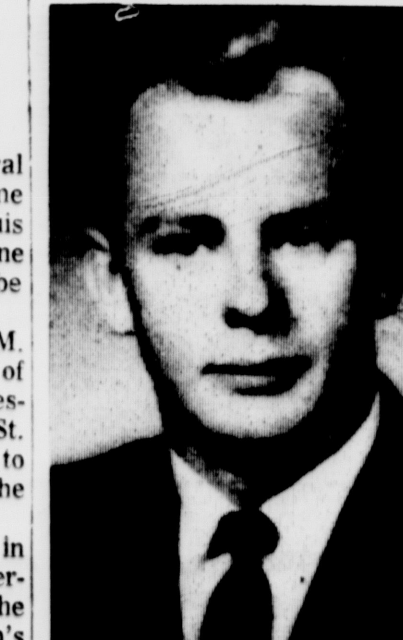

Aside from that difference, the House and Senate amendments are nearly identical. The Senate amendment passed 72 to 0 in February and the House voted 367 to 29 in favor of its version six weeks ago.

The amendments are intended to ensure against any break in the exercise of the powers and duties of the presidency. Besides providing for a vice president to take over the duties of a disabled president, they would have a vacancy in the vice presidency filled by presidential appointment.

Urges Claim Filing

"People over age 65 who have not filed a claim for social security benefits because they are working full time should file their claims now," Ralph T. Sprague, Social Security District Manager, said today. He went on to explain that by filing a claim the individual insures himself against any loss of benefits for himself or his family in the future. Sprague also pointed out that by establishing the right to benefits ahead of time much delay could be avoided when the time came to receive the first check.

"June and July are usually our lightest months," Sprague said, "and we can give better and faster service right now than may be possible later in the year."

WINNER — Ralph Elmo Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elmo Powell, Racket Star Route, Warsaw, has been awarded a $200 college scholarship, donated by Warsaw Producers Exchange and the MFA Foundation. Powell is a recent graduate of Warsaw R-III High School and earned seven letters in four years of sports competition. He plans to attend the University of Missouri, Columbia and hopes to write and teach on a college level after graduating.

Comments On Today's Movie Scene

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Notes and comments on the Hollywood scene—

Rock Hudson continues his escape from the bedroom farces. His next film will be "Seconds," which he describes as a horror picture. But not the Vincent Price variety, it should be added; this one will stress psychological horror. It is being directed by John Frankenheimer, the young suspense master who made "The Manchurian Candidate" and "Seven Days in May."

Carroll Baker wasn't too exhausted after finishing "Harlow" to toss a wing-ding party at her house. Between dances she commented that the film was the toughest she has tackled. And not only because of the virus that kept her out of the picture for two weeks.

"It was the first time I have done a picture that was glamorous and heavily dramatic," she said. "That meant two or three hours of being made up and then going into emotional scenes all day."

Carroll's reward for her labors: Three months' rest on the Riviera. Harlow never had it so good.

There will be a Fonda reunion on the sands of Malibu this summer. Jane has a house at the beach while she's shooting "The Chase." When papa Henry finishes "Battle of the Bulge" in Spain, he'll take a house a few doors away that Jane rented for him. He'll bring his 10-year-old daughter, whom Jane hasn't seen in two years. Also, son Peter and his family will be nearby.

Gene Kelly hopes to direct a new "Beau Geste" as his next film; he has done spectacular musicals but never a real spectacle. The project is now in the hands of the Universal bigwigs, who are deciding whether to make the $6 million outlay.

"I want to do it right or not at all," said Gene. "That means shooting it in the Sahara with thousands of Arabs."

Fantasy of an Emergency

Right now during the period of eighth grade promotion exercises, it may sound a bit disparaging to call Sedalia City council's attention to an accepted and pithy maxim the youngsters learned a long time ago—haste makes waste.

But that's about what happened concerning the premature birth of the Community Antenna Television ordinance, under emergency conditions, delivered in an atmosphere of anger and urgency with resultant deformity.

Now it appears that the ordinance passed was not the one drawn up by City Counselor Earl Crawford. The fascinating stories of this mixup already have appeared in the news columns and are too voluminous to record in this column.

Mayor L. L. Studer is correct in a statement that "this whole thing was a misunderstanding which would never have occurred if Mr. Crawford, the city counselor, had been at the council meeting."

That is very true, but the monkey shouldn't be strapped to the counselor's back. He has stated that he did not have an ordinance draft in final form because it was his belief the matter was not to be brought up at the reconvened council meeting scheduled primarily to open bids on disposal plant and sewer work.

There seems to be general agreement among the counselor, Councilman Walker, Askren and Priddy that the council should have given a CATV ordinance more consideration rather than jamming it through at one meeting without detailed study of its complexities.

Why the incomplete ordinance was brought up and passed on an emergency basis is not very well understood by the public. True CATV has been on the council agenda for a year, but look how much longer it took the Urban plan and the Sewer projects to get to a bid status and otherwise approved in their numerous parts.

It appears that there is more of an emergency existing with regard to sewers than there is to cable television. Since when has this latter project become entitled to consideration as an unforeseen combination of circumstances which calls for immediate and unexpected action like it was Monday night?

In view of the circumstances surrounding that night meeting it appears to us there was more of an emergency to Mr. Crawford's attendance at the graduation of his son, Donald, in Lincoln, Nebraska, than there was to council's adoption of an ordinance under conditions referred to as emergency—a phony label if there ever was one. Let's get the monkey off Mr. Crawford's back, and put it where the animal belongs along with its brothers and sisters—on the backs of those councilmen who got so eager they couldn't wait for Mr. Crawford's return.

Now as it turns out, the blunder is recognized and council will do what Councilmen Walker, Askren and Priddy have consistently advised—channel or, in this case, rechannel the CATV ordinance through the Printing and Ordinance committee of which, ironically enough, they are the members. Detailed amendments are in order, and no extra poles, please!

So, what have we now? The ordinance adopted under emergency conditions turns out to be not so much of an emergency since, after all, it will take additional time to study it, amend it, and go through the legislative processes.

We have been importuned all day long to "skin the hides off the mayor and those five councilmen."

But, good gosh, we can't do that. From what we hear there has already been quite a bit of skin-peeling.

Anyway, it was all a miscalculation so council and the mayor are going to do something about it the next few weeks in order to correct what can be called just a plain, old-fashioned councilmanic boner—charitably speaking, that is. GHS

Reds Agitate By Means of Youth Clubs

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — The W. E. Du Bois Clubs or their members have been exceedingly active on the fringes of many of the protests, demonstrations and marches objecting to U. S. actions in Viet Nam.

Du Bois Clubs participated in the April 17 March on Washington. Their members have been identified in teach-ins and demonstrations at points as scattered as Chicago, Los Angeles, Madison and New York. They have been active in helping circulate petitions in which young men pledge not to serve in the U. S. Army in Viet Nam.

Du Bois Club members jumped in the fringes of the University of California riots to do what they could to stir things up, make things rougher and keep the fight going — though they were not in control.

Members who enjoyed the trip were: Helen Allen, Thelma Bryant, Virginia Biery, Martha Collins, Melv Lucille Hamilton, Lucille C. Crawford, Lucille Lewis, Pauline Milburn, Hester Phillips, Frances Salmons, Mary Jo Vilmer and Thelma Ward.

Miss Lucille Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hall, of Sedalia, was crowned queen of the freshman class at the annual May fete at Missouri Valley College. Miss Mildred Heynen, daughter of Clyde Heynen, of Sedalia, was an attendant of the sophomore class queen. She is president of the Sigma Phi sorority.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Dominican Problems Nothing New

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fog has settled over the Dominican Republic where the Johnson administration has tried to end the revolution and so far has failed.

First, this brief background on a country which lived 31 years under a dictator and now has two "presidents".

From 1930 until his assassination in 1961 Gen. Rafael Trujillo was absolute dictator while those around him got rich in a land of poverty. There were, of course, no real political parties.

After his death the Dominicans struggled through four governments and then, in a free election, chose Juan Bosch president. He lasted seven months until he was thrown out in 1963 by the military which scrapped the constitution and set up a five-man junta.

Although the United States recognized this junta, it lacked mass support and was heaved out in the revolution which began April 24. The military, defying the rebels, quickly set up another junta.

Skipping over the intervening weeks, this is the picture now: There are two warring factions, the five-man civilian-military junta headed by Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera as "president" and the rebels headed by Col. Francisco Caamaño Domo as "president."

On April 23 President Johnson sent in Marines. At first he said they were there to save American lives; later he said they were there to prevent a takeover by Communists who, he explained, controlled the revolution.

Then on the weekend of May 15 he sent in his special adviser, McGeorge Bundy, a former Harvard dean, as his trouble-shooter. Bundy returned to Washington Wednesday after 10 days in the Dominican Republic. He hadn't solved anything.

What he tried to do was get both sides to agree to a coalition government. To do this, the United States wanted the two leaders, Imbert and Caamaño, to step down. But Imbert refused. This was a blow to Bundy and Johnson.

The United States had not only supported the Imbert junta — some say it was created at U.S. suggestion — but two weeks ago was considering recognizing it as the government.

But Imbert reportedly lacked mass support and a week ago U.S. policy shifted support away from Imbert, urging that he and Caamaño both step aside.

Caamaño may have undergone a change, too. In the past he had said he would step down but Wednesday he told newsmen no agreement had been reached on forming a coalition although, he said, his talks with Bundy had helped chances for a solution.

When Bundy came home he left the task of working out an agreement with both sides to Dr. Jose Mora, secretary-general of the Organization of American States.

Meanwhile, the OAS had voted 14 to 4 to send in a Latin-American peacekeeping force with troops from five countries, about 2,000 in all. As they move in the United States will withdraw about 1,700 of its 21,000 troops.

The U.S. ambassador to the OAS, Ellsworth Bunker, seems to see great things in store for the idea of an OAS peacekeeping force. This was the first time Latin-American countries had ever agreed to anything like this.

He called it a "historic action," hoped it would become a precedent for a permanent hemisphere peacekeeping force. But there's a good chance it won't and for several reasons.

Not all Latin-American countries are happy with the U.S. intervention in this case and all of them, along with the United States, 17 years ago agreed in the OAS charter that no state or group of states has a right to intervene in any American state's internal problems for any reason.

When Johnson sent in the Marines he was going contrary to this agreement signed by the United States, but the OAS by sending in the peacekeeping force was also acting contrary to its own charter.

And now the Johnson administration is beginning to soft-pedal the idea that the Communists, as Johnson said May 2, control the revolution and even seems to be making its own double-check on its information about the Reds.

The U.S. Central Intelligence Agency has the job of checking on things like Communists in other countries and Johnson presumably relied on CIA information when he talked of Red control in the Dominican Republic.

But now the White House has in effect acknowledged the FBI is in there checking, too.

THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Double Trouble From Shingles, Chicken Pox

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Association

So many readers have written in to say that they have known of persons who have had shingles after they had chicken pox — two diseases caused by the same virus — that I consulted a skin specialist who assured me that this was fairly common, but that persons who had had shingles never get chicken pox.

Q — What is the normal blood pressure?

A — In normal persons the blood pressure is subject to wide variations. In general the upper level (systolic pressure) is about 100 plus half your age. The lower level (diastolic pressure) however, is the one to watch. This may vary from 60 to 90 (normal average is about 80) but it should not exceed 100.

Q — I have high blood pressure. Can you name a blood pressure reducing drug that is not harmful to stomach ulcers? The pills my doctor gives me bother my ulcer.

A — The problem of high blood pressure is attacked from several angles. Water pills, to rid the body of both salt and water, are widely used. A hormone (Normotensin) is often given to neutralize the excess of adrenal secretion found in many persons with high blood pressure. It is safe and has no side effects. Tranquillizers, especially those derived from Rauwolfia serpentina, are of value, although some of them produce side effects. Mannitol hexanitrate is sometimes given to dilate the arteries and thus reduce the blood pressure. None of these is likely to aggravate your ulcer, but it is true that other drugs which can be used effectively in persons without ulcers may cause stomach upsets in ulcer sufferers.

Q — I have always had a low blood pressure. The last time I went to my doctor he couldn't get it all. What does this mean?

A — A low blood pressure is an asset (unless the upper level goes below 96, in which case you might be approaching a state of shock). In some persons with fleshy arms and normally low blood pressure the pulsations are hard to detect, but this should cause you no alarm.

Q — My son had a series of boils and our doctor gave him Aureomycin. Would this help my arthritis?

A — Arthritis is not primarily an infectious disease. This drug would not be of any value in its treatment.

The Mature Parent

Pampering Is Selfishness

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: I've been driving my 9-year-old boy to and from school. Now, because school bus stops nearer our house, my husband makes John take it. Mrs. Lawrence, the boy had a severe hip operation five years ago. I do not want him riding a bus where bigger boys could knock him down. My husband says I am exaggerating his hip weakness to pamper him. How is it pampering a child to want to protect him against more injury that could cripple him for life?

ANSWER: Do you blame yourself for John's hip trouble? I'm just asking. Because it is our certainty that we are to blame for everything that goes wrong with a child which is the root of that destructive maternalism we call "pampering." Psychologists call it "overprotectiveness."

It is this certainty that compels us to fasten the child to us lest any independent action he takes result in some mishap, some mistake which will expose us to blame.

We're absolutely unaware of this expectation of blame—this pervasive apprehension of attack which directs all our over-protective action. We will explain, for example, our excessive fear that school bus rides will result in more injury to a child's hip as superior love. Accused of "pampering," we'll turn on the accuser with the moral indignation of someone whose capacity for love is bigger and better than anyone else's capacity for it.

I think maybe you are over-protective of John. If your fear of more injury to John's hip were not loaded with fear of more blame for yourself, you would have long since dealt with it. You would have asked his doctor to check his hip and tell you whether or not it can survive the hazards of school bus rides.

But this simple answer to reasonable, non-overprotective concern for a child's safety hasn't been available to you, has it?

So it becomes my obligation to ask you to begin to wonder if your eagerness to protect John isn't eagerness to protect yourself.

Letter To The Editor

EARL E. BELL (Commander, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Petis County Post No. 2591) — Memorial Day, May 30, folks will visit the cemeteries to place flowers on the graves of departed friends and relatives. Veterans will place flags at the grave head of each departed comrade who served in every known war that Americans have fought. Veterans will hold a service in memory of these men and women. And after these chores and duties are over, the folks and living veterans will go to their homes or the homes of relatives for Sunday dinner. And so it is as it well should be.

Many times in our lives this has been the order of the day. Automatically we do these things. Very few of us will think to place our colors on display at our homes, to tell everyone that Americans live here, that there is love for their country and flag.

A small gesture is a wonderful memorial. This year, too, add a thought of thanks to your prayers to the departed; a little thank you to those who fought to preserve our freedom, our liberties and our way of life. Were it not for the endless toll of men who give their lives, we may not be here today.

Our freedom is being protected and our Nation will always be free, so an invitation is being extended to everyone to join the members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, The American Legion, World War I Veterans, War Mothers, War Dads, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and others, at Memorial Park Cemetery, at 2 p.m. Sunday for services for our departed comrades, The Defenders of Our Nation, The Builders of Our Great Heritage.

Wants To Fight Canadian

Rumblings In Sports World Fail To Faze Boisterous Cassius Clay

LEWISTON, Maine (AP) — Nothing seems to faze Cassius Clay.

In the wake of international condemnation of the first-round knockout of Sonny Liston, nationwide calls for a probe of boxing, and proposals in several states for the banning of boxing, the undefeated and undaunted heavyweight champion talked today of fighting Canadian champion George Chuvalo or former champion Floyd Patterson next, or "anyone the public picks."

"Maybe I should fight three of them — Floyd Patterson, George Chuvalo and Ernie Terrell — in one night," said Clay. "But who would bet on Clay, Patterson and Terrell to beat me?"

All three want the next shot at Clay, despite his one-punch kayo of Liston Tuesday night in one minute, two minutes, or take your pick of the time. The question of the time may be officially decided before long.

But how much power really was generated by that one short, right-hand blow to Liston's left cheekbone never will be known by anyone except Liston. Either the cocky 23-year-old Clay unleashed one of the mightiest punches ever or Liston's ability or desire to take a punch was gone.

Clay, Liston, referee Jersey Joe Walcott and Patterson all say it was a hard smash. Chuvalo, who dashed into the ring Tuesday night to argue with Clay, charged the knockout was "a farce."

"Liston's reflexes were slow and his coordination was gone," said ringsider Jimmy Braddock, one of the many ex-heavyweight kings at the fight. "He got hit a good shot and fell apart. A fighter is the last one to know when he's finished."

Arriving home in Denver, Liston remarked that he had gotten a "fast shuffle," but did not explain the statement. Sonny said he'd like to fight Clay again, "but I guess I'll have to give some other guys a chance."

Liston said he thought Walcott separated him and Clay because the round was over.

"I thought maybe I didn't hear the bell or something," he said.

"It was a real hard smash," said Patterson, who added, "I want to fight Clay more than ever now. I haven't seen anybody throw a right hand like Clay since Joe Louis. But I believe I know how to beat him."

"I'm not afraid of Clay," said Chuvalo, the Canadian champion from Toronto who lost to Patterson in a savage 12-round fight Feb. 1.

"Nobody's knocked me down and Clay won't either. All I ask is the chance at him."

Terrell, the Chicago string-bean who was named champion by the World Boxing Association after the WBA stripped Clay of his title for signing for the return bout with Liston, has repeatedly challenged Cassius to fight him.

A Chuvalo-Clay fight would put Merv McKenzie, the president of the WBA in a terrible dilemma. He is from Toronto, one of the sites proposed for the fight.

McKenzie called the Clay-Liston fight "unfitting, illegal and a disgrace to boxing."

Clay, after he had won the title when Liston quit on his stool 15 months ago, said right after that fight that "Liston is an amateur who should be made to fight his way up again."

Clay made Liston look like an amateur again, if you took the fight as you saw it.

But just like many of the fans in the small high school hockey rink Tuesday night who chanted "fake" and "fix," newspapers from California to Moscow carried bold headlines screaming of "farce," "fraud" and "fake."

In Washington, D.C., Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., called for another Congressional investigation of boxing and described the Tuesday bout as the "nadir of a sport."

Rep. Robert H. Michel, R-Ill., proposed a probe of the fight, calling it "quite a fraud" and "a disgrace to boxing."

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., who has had a shot at it before, said he would propose a 1965 version of his bill to create the office of a federal boxing commissioner with the machinery for investigation of controversial professional bouts. He said he will introduce it in the Senate, probably next week.

Previous efforts to set up a federal boxing commissioner have died. Other renewed calls for federal supervision of the battered and deflated sport came from former heavyweight champions Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey, former Olympic champion Eddie Egan, WBA Commissioner Abe J. Greene, legislators in many states, former postmaster general James A. Farley and many other public officials.

Because of the controversy over the time of the knockout, Walcott's failure to pick up the timekeeper's count, the accounts of a "phantom" and a "thunder and lightning" punch, more money will be added to the promotional purse by an added television show.

The American Broadcasting Co. said the fight will be shown on its television network Saturday from 4 to 5:30 p.m., EST. The sale price was not disclosed.

Clay and Liston each will gross about $600,000 for the fight.

The time of the bout may be officially decided soon by the Maine Boxing Commission. The timers announced a one-minute knockout after the bout. An unofficial viewing of the film by newsmen using stop watches Wednesday showed Liston felled at 1:44, up at 1:56, and declared out by Walcott at 2:11.

Duncan MacDonald, a member of the Maine Commission, said the three-man commission would get a copy of the television tape and a radio tape "and will consider everything at a full meeting, later."

It was obvious, however, the old time record of 1:28 for a heavyweight title fight will still stand. That was set, according to the Ring Record Book, by Tommy Burns when he downed Jim Roche in Dublin, March 17, 1908.

Twins Won Again

Minnesota Bombs May Be Ousted Soon

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Minnesota's bombs soon may be banned in Boston.

The Twins unloaded three more bombs Wednesday night as they outlasted the Red Sox 9-7 and moved into first place in the American League.

The home-run barrage gave the Twins eight in their first two days in Boston this season. That put them far ahead of their 1964 pace at Fenway when they hit 13 homers in nine games.

Earl Wilson was the victim of the Twins' latest assault. Bob Allison ignited the attack, slamming a three-run homer in the first inning. Harmon Killebrew continued it in the third with a bases-empty blast, and Tony Oliva finished it with a leadoff homer in the fifth.

The final homer also helped finish Wilson, who left the game after the next batter, Killebrew, reached first on Ed Bressoud's error.

While Minnesota was winning its fifth game in the last six, the Chicago White Sox were losing their sixth in the last seven, a 3-1 decision to Cleveland, and dropping into second place, seven percentage points behind the Twins.

In other AL games, Kansas City defeated Baltimore 6-3 and Los Angeles edged Washington 2-1. Rain washed out New York at Detroit.

Oliva's homer, his eighth, tied the Red Sox 6-6 and triggered a four-run rally. Earl Battey doubled in two of the runs, and Allison, who walked, scored on a grounder by Zoilo Versalles. Boston erupted for five runs in the second inning. Carl Yastrzemski driving in three with a double.

Cleveland's Luis Tiant and Chicago's Gary Peters were engaged in a scoreless duel until the seventh inning. Chico Salmon doubled with two out, and the Indians were on their way to a three-run rally. Chuck Hinton singled in Salmon and scored on Max Alvis' double. Tiant held Chicago to five hits.

Diego Segui pitched a five-hitter and rapped three singles while Bert Campaneris contrib-

MU Tigers Kings In Offense

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nebraska was the Big Eight leader in pitching and fielding, but Missouri's league champions offset this by carrying a big stick. In almost every offensive category, the Tigers were kings.

Missouri led in team batting at 310, runs 128, hits 174, doubles 29, triples 12 and home runs 23. In stolen bases, Missouri tied with Iowa State for third at 24, while Kansas State and Colorado shared the lead at 25.

Nebraska had an excellent team earned run average of 2.43. The Husker staff permitted only 46 runs, 36 of them earned. In fielding, Nebraska had a .958 mark, committing only 28 errors in 667 chances.

But the Huskers tied for last in runs scored with Oklahoma at 68 and their team batting mark of .216 outranked only Colorado's .212.

Missouri scored 128 runs, almost twice Nebraska's total and 32 more than Okla. State, the runner-up with 96 runs. Missouri's pitching staff was sixth in ERA at 4.32 and the Tigers have given up 79 runs, 6 earned. The team slugging percentage of three runs-batted-in to the Kansas City cause. Campaneris homered following a Segui single, tying the game 3-3 in the fifth inning. Jim Gentile then socked his 10th homer, putting the Athletics ahead to stay.

Pete Richert held Los Angeles to one hit through eight innings — Joe Adcock's fourth-inning homer — but had to give way to Bennie Daniels in the ninth because of the heat. The Angels won it in that inning when Jose Cardenal singled, stole second and came home on Jim Fregosi's single.

Baseball Is Subject At Lions Meet

Baseball — Smith-Cotton High School baseball — was the subject before the Sedalia Lions Club at its noonday meeting Wednesday. The speakers were Earl Finley and Ralph "Skip" Schulz, coaches of the Tiger baseball team.

Coach Finley, who is head coach of baseball, spoke on the team as a whole and of its record this past season and also on the play the boys have been providing under pressure of the state tournament through the district, sub-district and regional games.

Finley himself coached the Lamar, Colo., high school to the state championship in Colorado in 1957. He played pro baseball prior to entering his coaching-teaching career.

"Skip" (as Schulz is better known) by his many Sedalia friends, spoke on the coaching of the pitching staff and the determination of the staff getting in condition, staying in condition, and of their ever untiring practicing.

"We have a fine bunch of boys and our pitchers are a great team who have wonderful backing by their teammates," he said.

It was brought out this is the first time the Tigers have gone to the semi-finals of the state tournament, although back when Skip was pitching for the S-C Tigers, the team did advance to the quarter-finals and at that time they played in Forest Park in St. Louis in the state tournament. That was before the regionals were considered quarter-finals.

The speakers were introduced by Dr. Chester Kirkpatrick, program chairman, who called attention to the fact the Tigers are playing in the semi-finals at St. Louis, Friday, and are determined to play in the finals Saturday.

Dr. O. J. Durnell, president, presided over the meeting.

reflects Missouri's big edge in power over the league. Tigers slugged .528, OSU .367 and Kansas .359 for third.

In team batting, OSU had .255, Iowa State .251, Kansas .246, Oklahoma .221, K-State .218. In team ERA Iowa State's fine staff was a close second with .261. Other marks were OSU 3.60, Colorado 3.78, Kansas 4.31, Oklahoma 4.68 and K-State 5.94.

Oklahoma was second in team fielding at .951. Missouri had .948, Iowa State .945, OSU .939, K-State .937, Kansas .937 and Colorado .936.

Brock Only Won Battle

Maury Wills Still Winning The War

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Lou Brock won the battle, but Maury Wills still is winning the war.

Brock, who has turned into Wills' shadow in a possible record-making race for the National League's stolen-base championship, came out on top in their first direct confrontation Wednesday night while the St. Louis Cardinals edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1.

Brock, the Cardinals' swift left fielder, stole three bases for a season total of 21 in 39 games. Wills, the Dodgers record-holder and five-time champion, settled for one steal and a total of 25 in 40 games.

Wills, who stole 53 bases last year, predicted before the season started that someone would eventually break the record of 104 he set in 1962. And he hinted that it just might be the guy who played shortstop for the Dodgers.

"I think it's possible to break the record," Wills said. "And the way I feel I think I can go at top speed all the way. I feel better than when I was 18. Maybe I'm getting my second wind."

Brock, on the other hand, still is learning how to use his first wind. He's only 25 — eight years younger than Wills — and didn't develop into a Wills-type stealing threat until he was turned loose after being acquired from the Chicago Cubs last June.

The Cardinals' victory pulled the defending world champions to within 1½ games of the first-place Dodgers, who stayed one game ahead of Cincinnati in the tightening NL struggle as the Reds bowed to Houston 8-3.

Elsewhere, Milwaukee belted San Francisco 10-4, Pittsburgh upended Philadelphia 5-3 and the Chicago Cubs edged the New York Mets 8-6 in 10 innings.

Brock scored the first Cardinal run in the first inning on Ken Boyer's sacrifice fly but the Dodgers tied it in the second on singles by Ron Fairly and Lou Johnson, a walk and a double-play grounder. The Cardinals brought home the winner in the seventh on successive singles by Bob Uecker, Curt Simmons and Julian Javier.

Simmons got the victory with a five-hitter for a 3-5 record, outdueling Sandy Koufax, now 6-3.

Jim Wynn was the big gun for is was in sixth place on this day with a .367 average, while Brooklyn was first with .704. In the American League, Boston was first with a .679 and St. Louis was sixth with a .414. It's gratifying to note that St. Louis is doing a little better this year. (pf)

SOME ST. LOUIS players, on May 28, 1940, were leading the major league statistical columns in both circuits. In the National, Mize of St. Louis paced the league in runs with 25, and in homers, with 12, up to that point in the season.

Then, in the American League, Radcliff spearheaded the Missouri team with a .408 average at the bat, while Judnich, also of St. Louis, was tied for second place in triples, with four for the season.

INDIVIDUAL MARKS placed Missourians high in the big leagues, but the teams as a whole weren't doing much at all. In the National League, St. Louis the Astros against the Reds, driving in four runs in support of Bob Bruce's five-hit, 13-strikeout pitching.

Wynn singled home a run in the first, broke a 2-2 tie with a two-run triple in the third and hit his seventh homer in the fifth inning as Bill McCool was tagged with the loss in his first start.

The Braves bombed Giant ace Juan Marichal for 11 hits and nine runs in 3 2-3 innings, with Joe Torre and Felipe Alou each hitting a pair of homers. Torre drove in five runs and Alou three with the shots that sent Marichal down to his fourth loss against seven victories.

The Pirates snapped a 3-3 tie in the seventh inning when Andre Rodgers doubled, moved to third on a long fly and sped home on a two-out bunt by Manny Mota. Willie Stargell padded the margin with his eighth homer.

The Mets replaced the Pirates in 10th place when former teammate George Altman hit a two-run homer for the Cubs' victory in the 10th inning.

The Mets had tied the score with a two-run sixth-inning rally after the Cubs built an early lead behind Vic Roznovsky's three-run homer.

Serenity Is Still Unavailable

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Ageless Archie Moore's retirement from the ring hasn't brought any noticeable serenity into the life of his wife and No. 1 fan — Mrs. Joan Moore.

She's still his business manager, just as she was when the "Mongoose" was light-heavyweight champion of the world. She also cares for their five children, helps out in community work and carries on an active social schedule.

"All marriages are complicated, but I guess ours is a little more so than most."

"I used to travel a lot with Archie before we had all the children, and I still go with him when important business matters are involved."

"In fact, I've been looking out for Archie's business interests since we were married in 1956."

"I was particularly careful with his fight contracts, and there are quite a few promoters around who wished Archie had never married me," Mrs. Moore said.

She first met Archie on a blind date in New York where she worked as a fashion model. Her sister, Juanita, is married to actor Sidney Poitier.

Archie's many activities give Mrs. Moore, 33, considerable opportunity to develop her business judgement.

He operated a restaurant in San Diego, has a training camp in the country, ran for City Council and lost, and has appeared in movies and television shows.

"He says he hasn't retired at all, he's just not fighting anymore," Mrs. Moore said. "Right now, he's in Jamaica training boxers for the government. He has about 200 students and hopes to get some professional prospects out of the class."

Quitting the ring was Archie's own idea, she said.

"He loves boxing, and I felt that as long as he was not getting hurt, he should continue in what he liked to do."

Moore, 48, had his light-heavyweight crown lifted in 1963 when he did not defend it. He had won the title in 1952.

Archie wants his sons, Hardy, 4, D'Angelo, 3, and Anthony, 5 months, to become surgeons.

Cards Break Tie For Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A tie-breaking single by Julian Javier gave Curt Simmons and the St. Louis Cardinals a 2-1 victory Wednesday night over the Dodgers in Los Angeles while a two-run homer and a squeeze bunt by Bert Campaneris led the A's in a 6-3 victory over the Orioles at Baltimore.

Simmons, veteran left-hander, won his third of the season against five losses. He limited the Dodgers to 5-hits. Sandy Koufax was tagged with the loss.

St. Louis scored in the first inning on singles by Lou Brock and Curt Flood, a double steal and Ken Boyer's sacrifice fly.

Los Angeles tied it in the second when Jeff Torborg hit into a double play with the bases loaded. Javier's winning blow came in the seventh.

Kansas City punched out 10 hits against loser Robin Roberts and two Oriole relievers. Diego Segui went the route for the A's on a five-hitter. He gave up only one hit over the last five innings.

Baltimore's run production was sparked by two homers. Luis Aparicio hit a solo shot in the first inning and Bob Johnson concluded the Oriole power show in the fourth with a two-run blast.

The A's scored in the third on John Blanchard's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded. Then, in the fifth, Campaneris homered with Segui on base and moments later Jim Gentile got his 10th homer of the season, a 430-foot drive with the bases empty.

Kansas City's final runs came in the sixth on a double, walk, bunt single, error, and Campaneris' squeeze bunt which went for a hit.

Fred Talbot will open for the A's at Baltimore tonight against Steve Barber or Dave McNally. St. Louis moves to the astrodome at Houston where the Colts will send Dick Ferrell against the Cards Ray Washburn.

Another standout signed by KU was Gary Tucker of Kansas City, Kan., Argentine, Kansas shot out record holder at 62-72 1/4, fourth best in the nation.

Two of the signees, milers Jim Ryun and Mike Petterson of Wichita East, announced earlier their decisions to attend Kansas. Ryun's 3:58.3 mile is the only sub-4-minute mile in high school history. He was on the Olympic team last year. Petterson, with a best of 4:10.8, ranks high in the nation. He ran a 14:21.8 three-mile the same night, for the best such distance double on record.

The other signees are David Aikens of Eire, a 58-5 1/2 shot put; Keith Christensen of Concordia, 57-5 1/4 shot put; Ron Schrader of Harper, 6-5 high jump best; John Zook, Larned, 165-3 1/2 in discus; and Junior Riggins, Centralia, 9.9 sprinter and 22-6 broad jumper.

He said he invited Finley on May 14 to set a date for a conference.

"I haven't heard a thing. It's possible he hasn't had time to reply. Maybe the player trading situation hasn't given him time."

Dubiner indicated his group may try to do some business with Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball, and the presidents of the two major leagues.

"Without a big league baseball team in Kansas City, there wouldn't be much point in building a domed stadium," he said.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Morris Dubiner, a member of the Jackson County Court and one of the sparkplugs of a plan to build a domed sports arena on the east fringe of Kansas City, says he hasn't had any response from Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE MAJOR HOOPLE

13 Track Stars Ink KU Letters

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Kansas has signed 13 high school track stars to letters of intent, including a 16-1 pole vaulter and an outstanding distance runner, both from California.

Bob Steinhoff of Warren High School, Downey, Calif., is the vaulter and Mike Kearns of Encino, Calif., is the distance runner.

Steinhoff has vaulted this year in the shadow of his teammate, Paul Wilson, the national leader at 16-6 1/4. But Bob Timmons, who will take over as Kansas track coach July 1, said "Bob beat Wilson twice this spring within 10 days."

Kearns has run 4:16.8 in the mile and a more outstanding 9:22.8 in the two-mile.

Another standout signed by KU was Gary Tucker of Kansas City, Kan., Argentine, Kansas shot out record holder at 62-72 1/4, fourth best in the nation.

Rusk Plans To Meet With Latins

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk plans to meet with some Latin-American foreign ministers to take stock of the Dominican situation and to explore the possibility of setting up a standby inter-American force for future emergencies.

Perhaps a half dozen foreign ministers — the exact number is still unknown — are expected at an Organization of American States meeting — tentatively set for late today — to review the month-old Caribbean crisis and consider what to do next.

The Dominican situation is entering a new phase with a virtual end to the fighting, the replacement of some U.S. troops with troops from other hemisphere countries and a protracted stalemate between rival Dominican factions over an interim regime.

McGeorge Bundy, President Johnson's adviser on national security affairs, returned Wednesday from nearly a fortnight in Santo Domingo and told newsmen the situation is "much less hectic" now.

Rusk planned to see Brazilian Foreign Minister Vasco Leito da Cunha this afternoon. The OAS session then would follow, although officials said it may be delayed until Friday.

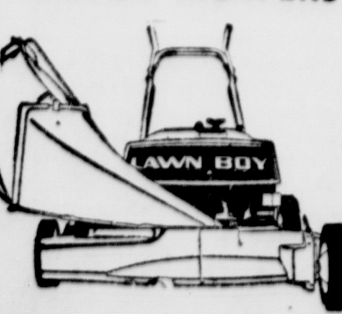

Rusk told a news conference Wednesday the Dominican conflict should spur the OAS to create a reserve military contingent that could be hurried to hemisphere trouble spots while slower-moving inter-American consultations took place.

"The hemisphere," Rusk said, "needs to take up again the question of constituting some standby forces on a continuing basis, on prompt call, and the organization of a political machinery for taking hemispheric decisions promptly in the face of fast-moving events."

President Johnson has been criticized in some quarters for not consulting with the OAS before sending Marines to the Dominican Republic April 28.

But Rusk said the United States had to act quickly and that it consulted with the OAS promptly after the troop order was issued. When the OAS was informed, he said, it was unable to take even preliminary steps until more than a day later.

'No Point' Rights Bill In Backing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Influential Republicans agreed today there isn't much political hay in the overwhelming support Republican senators gave the voting-rights bill.

But the fact that 30 of the 32 GOP senators voted for passage Wednesday as the bill cleared the Senate should help get the party back in the mainstream of civil rights, said Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y.

"It gives us the opportunity to appeal again to civil rights supporters," he said. "It identifies ours as a responsible political party instead of the radical, states-rights party it was represented to be in the 1964 campaign."

"It gets us back to where we were in the pre-Goldwater period."

However, Javits agreed with fellow Republican Sens. George D. Aiken of Vermont and John G. Tower of Texas, who said in separate interviews they do not believe Republican support of the legislation will win Negro voters away from the Democrats.

Aiken, senior Republican in Senate service, said he doesn't believe Republican backing for the bill will get much attention from the voters or will yield any material political benefits.

"Our Madison Avenue division is not very strong and what we do doesn't get advertised effectively," Aiken said. "I don't think our support of the bill is going to make any difference politically, one way or the other."

Tower, one of two Republicans who voted against the measure — the other was Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina — said he would have supported it if the Senate had not rejected an amendment he offered to bring the bill more in line with a substitute that House Republicans are backing. Instead of being aimed at specific Southern states, the substitute would provide for federal registrars when 25 persons in a state or county complained of racial discrimination.

"By voting as they did, the Republicans showed that they wanted some kind of bill," Tower said. "But I think the political effect will be negligible because this will be known as a Democratic administration bill."

Vote With Majority

WASHINGTON (AP)—All Missouri and Kansas senators voted with the majority Wednesday as the Senate passed the voting rights bill 77-19. Voting for the bill were Sens. Long and Symington, Missouri Democrats; and Carlson and Pearson, Kansas Republicans.

Public Health Grant To Aid MU Research

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $215,849 Public Health Service grant will help the University of Missouri expand its research and training in environmental health into a four campus project.

Missouri senators Wednesday said Raymond E. Peck, dean of research administration for the university, said the program will utilize facilities on campuses at Columbia, Rolla, Kansas

City and, when laboratory facilities are completed, on the campus at St. Louis. The program will focus on long term effects of various wastes and other contaminants. substances in the soil, water or air to which people are exposed. It will investigate pesticides, detergents, fertilizers, industrial wastes and other contaminants.
